“ Aunt Carol told me about the birds and the bees! Mom wasn't too happy but then she was my Aunt! She took me on dates with her because Grandma said she had to have a chaperone. I usually fell asleep or went to the snack bar at the drive in. The best time was going to the fair and I was treated to the rides and cotton candy! A few times I even had a boyfriend with me at the drive in but we were good. Aunt Carol sure loved Elvis back in the day! We listened to him all day sometimes on the radio. I think she had a few records as well. She taught me how to dance the mashed potato, the twist, the swim, and all the others of the day. I recall when she got pregnant Grandma made her a dress out of a burlap sack. Carol was so pretty she made that thing look good even though it was itchy. I am not sure what Aunt Carol did wrong that time I saw Grandpa going after her with a switch and she knew he couldn't catch her so she just kept that smile on her face! Carol Sue was so smart and cool for those days I really looked up to her as I was growing up. I shared in her broken hearts and tears, her joy, her jokes, laughter, and secrets. One thing I can say is she loved her children, grands and all her family with her whole heart. Rest in peace now sweet Aunt Carol and rejoice with your children, grand, and Grandma, Grandpa, and Murtie! Love you!

“ Dear Aunt Carol,
I'm full of "wish I had's..." but I loved you and will always carry your memory in my heart. I will remember our walks back in the woods to the creek at Grandma's and Grandpa's farm and how you instilled in me a love of nature and especially trees. I still always think of you whenever I see unique and special trees.
Thank you for loving me even when I was most unlovable. I will love and miss you forever. ~Dennie
