

Harry "Jack" Perrine

December 1, 1926 - December 19, 2014

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." II Timothy 4: 7 Harry Good "Jack" Perrine, age 88, died on December 19, 2014, peacefully and still holding this verse as his favorite. Only son born to Harry Good and Bonnie Marie Perrine in Welch, West Virginia on December 1, 1926, Jack began a life that was characterized by joy, humor, and faith. Husband to Virginia Mae Ahlmark Perrine, and father to Daniel Good Perrine and Jacqueline Perrine Schlichte, and known as 'PAPS' to many grandchildren and great grandchildren, Jack was considered by all to be a faithful family man. Extending that family to many of those who are now part of the Arbor Trace family, Jack leaves behind him a wealth of caregivers who joined the family in making his past few years a blessed continuation of his life. Dad was quoted to say of his journey, "I am the luckiest man in the world." Jack's accomplishments reflect the person that he intended to be. His love of Christ impacted his personality and beliefs; an avid reader of God's Word and Thomas A' Kempis 'The Imitation of Christ,' Jack often said, "If you want to see an old man cry, just tell me I have hurt anyone." With that kind of persona, Jack had a journey of accomplishment which included service in the United States Navy, graduation from Indiana University with a Bachelors in Business, running the family business called 'Perrine Fuel Oil,' becoming a real estate appraiser for AMAX Coal, faithful membership at Zionsville United Methodist Church, and in retirement, attending services and Bible Study at Arbor Trace, Richmond, Indiana, for the remainder of his days to keep his mind and his soul focused on the lifetime goal represented in Jack's favorite scripture. Jack Perrine was preceded in death by his wife, 'Ginny,' on January 15, 1998. Survivors include: son: Daniel (Kim) Good Perrine, daughter: Jackie (Dennis) Perrine Schlichte; Grandchildren: Jake Perrine, Christine Perrine, Catherine Perrine, Amanda(Will) Taylor, Rachael(Ben) Phillips, Lauren(Jake) Witcher; great grandchildren: Corbin, Duncan, and Jillian Mae Taylor, Reagan and Katelyn Phillips, Sophia and Sam Witcher; additional grandchildren through marriage, Joey Miller & Carissa Miller; great-great granddaughter, Danica Miller. Christian burial will take place at Zionsville Cemetery after a graveside service officiated by Perry Montgomery, Zionsville United Methodist Church. Immediate family will be present at the service. Contributions in honor of Jack Perrine may be made to Communities in Schools Wayne County (33 South 7th Street) or Richmond Community Schools Early College

Program, Richmond Indiana (300 Hub Etchison Parkway, Richmond, Indiana 47374).

“ So sorry to hear about your dad. He roomed with my dad, Robert Moore. He was very important to my dad, he was always worrying about him. They loved to watch basketball games together. I have very fond memories of him. My dad was a good Christian and was so happy for him to room with Jack. I am so sorry that we didn't go visit him after the death of my dad. I just couldn't get myself to go back to Arbor Trace. RIP Jack. You are in a better place with our maker. I am sure you are smiling from ear to ear.

“ Dear Jackie and family, My heartfelt condolences to you and all of your family. Though I have only known him since August 1st, he has been pure Christian with such a wonderful personality. full of humor, love, and a radiant twinkle in his eyes. He always winked @ the girls. He ate daily with Jack Hawkins who came to admire him immensely. I wish everyone could have seen him smiling @ the Christmas Party @ AT last Thurs. He so enjoyed the damsels and the Big Band. What a beautiful memory. God. bless each of you as you grieve the loss of your loved one. Peace be with you.
